

THE MISSION

The mission of ASU's QEP directly aligns with the University's Mission by "fostering critical thought and developing professional competence" for its students. Furthermore, the targeted QEP outcomes also align with the University's strategic plan by providing students a "holistic educational experience" that ultimately enhances their overall educational involvement.